

SOFIE PIHL - CV

Last edited 15.06.2016

Sofie Pihl is a danish-italian visual artist based in Copenhagen.

Her work has been represented in 3 solo shows, and in numerous juried and not juried group shows, both in Denmark and abroad.

Since this spring she's listed in Grosses Treffen online database of nordic artists, and was in 2014 nominated for PLAT(T)FORM. For her recent series Treescapes II, she was nominated for the Fine Art Photographic Award 2016, Fine Art Category.

Of the juried group shows she has participated in, it's worth mentioning Kunstnernes Påskeudstilling KP14 in Aarhus, Story of the Creatives, SEE Exhibition Space in New York and Exposure Photography Award, Musée du Louvre, Paris.

Sofie Pihl's work is also included in two curated art books, and she has published a portfolio book with her series Treescapes.

Alongside her art practice, Sofie Pihl is currently studying Art History at Copenhagen University.

She is a trained classical musician, and has completed her studies at the Conservatory of Music in Bologna, Italy. She studied at the Royal Danish Academy of the Arts' School of Architecture in 2002-2005, and has since then worked as a fine art / and freelance photographer.

Sofie Pihl lives just outside Copenhagen with her husband and their two daughters.
